Jorgensen Announces May Listening Sessions

MADISON –State Representative Andy Jorgensen (D-Milton) announced today his schedule of listening sessions for May. Jorgensen will hold three listening sessions on Monday, May 2nd starting at 11:00 a.m. at the Edgerton Senior Center (313 Stoughton Rd), followed by a meeting at 1:00 p.m. at The Gathering Place in Milton (715 Campus St), and ending at the Town of Janesville Town Hall (1628 N. Little Ct) at 6:30 p.m.

In addition, Jorgensen will hold listening sessions on Thursday, May 5th at the Footville Village Hall (156 Depot St) at 6:30 p.m. and on Wednesday, May 11th at the Bass Creek Café in Afton (5409 S. D, County Rd F) at 11:00 a.m.

"This is something I look forward to every single month; the opportunity to go out into the communities I serve and listen to real people talk about real problems that affect them and real concerns that they have," said Jorgensen. "I always enjoy meeting with the people I represent. So I encourage folks to come out and talk to me about their opinions because e-very one of them matters to me."

No appointment is needed to meet with Rep. Jorgensen during his in-district listening sessions. If you are unable to attend but wish to share your views, you can call Rep. Jorgensen toll-free at 888-534-0043 or email him at rep.jorgensen@legis.wi.gov.

Watch for announcements of upcoming listening sessions in your newspaper and on Jorgensen's legislative website, http://legis.wisconsin.gov/assembly/43/jorgensen.
